OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER

AMRINE WILL TRY TO EXPLAIN.

The recent unpleasantness between M. F. Amrine, superintendent of the State Industrial Reformatory, and Sam Graybill, State Live Stock Sanitary Inspector, has culminated in the filing of formal charges against Amrine with the State Board of Corrections, the accompanying allegations bearing the sworn signature of Sam S. Graybill, state live stock sanitary commissioner.

There are five counts in the formal charges, each upon its face, being flagrant in character. They are:

First—Willful violation of the state law, in the act of feeding the inmates diseased milk.

Second—Cruel and inhuman treatment of prisoners in the act of feeding such diseased milk.

Third—Insubordination in the violation of the quarantine law, regarding the governing or feeding germ-laden milk and also in the publication of interviews and signed articles.

Fourth—Knowingly allowing a paroled prisoner to work in a house of ill fame.

Fifth—Favoritism and discrimination between prisoners.

After the filing of the sworn complaints Major W. L. Brown, recently elected chairman of the board of corrections, called a special meeting of the board to convene in Hutchinson July 17, at which the trial of Mr. Amrine will occur. Major Brown had little comment to make on the approaching trial.

Considerable political "butch" in connection with this incident has been unloaded by the vendors of superheated atmosphere on the staff of some of the state papers who are doing all in their power to embarrass the administration, but nothing has as yet been produced which offers an explanation as to why such flagrant violations of law and decency as those alleged in the above charges should not be investigated.

Santa Fe Conductor C. M. Thomas of Newton, was in Great Bend on business yesterday.

Martin Garvey was here from Fort Dodge Sunday visiting his daughter, Mrs. Cleve Gilmore.

Chas. Gleadall and Martin Drescher, of Holsington, were in the city Monday on business.

Mrs. Henry Voth, of Ellinwood, visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Parker, on 16th street.

The Holsington postoffice has been reduced from second class to third class to go into effect at once.
